

Privacy Statement Faunabit B.V.

Faunabit B.V., registered at the Dutch Chamber of Commerce with number 82396957, hereby publishes her privacy statement regarding her provisions for collecting data under the GDPR. By accepting this privacy statement, Counterparty actively consents to processing of data.

Website data

Faunabit might collect cookies for the functionality and statistics of her website and/or marketing purposes. This concerns three types of cookies, namely functional, analytical and marketing cookies. Cookies will be stored no longer than necessary. You are able to change your cookie settings and/or delete your cookies through your website browser. Personal data collected through the website will exclusively be used for consented purposes.

Through Faunabit's website cookies might be placed by Google as part of Analytics-services. These services may be used for marketing purposes. Google may share this information with third parties when legally obliged or in case third parties process data for Google. Information shared through these services is transferred to Google and stored at servers in the United States.

Personal data

Why?

Data might be used for executing the agreement, processing orders, invoicing, costumer services, quality control, legal obligations, complaint handling and/or marketing purposes.

What?

Faunabit might collect personal identification data such as name, address, e-mail address, phone number, and website data. Faunabit only collects data that is directly provided by you, for example by registering for our newsletter, ordering products and/or entering into an agreement, sending us an e-mail or otherwise contacting us, or using or viewing our website. In case certain requested data is not shared, Faunabit might not be able to execute the agreement properly.

Where?

Data acquired by Faunabit will be kept on a server or in a cloud in which technical and organizational measures are taken to ensure data is secured for loss, theft or other unlawful processing.

Your data will be stored for the duration of one year after termination of the services provided by Faunabit, after which they will be carefully destroyed.

Permission

By accepting this privacy statement counterparty grants permission to process data. Faunabit will secure your data properly, but you may always access your data for review, change, object, control, update, modifying, receiving a copy and ask for your data to be deleted. If you have any questions regarding your data please contact info@faunabit.eu. Faunabit will process the request within 5 business days. Counterparty is allowed to make a complaint to the competent data authority (Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens) in case she deems necessary.
